

Public Notice of Zoning Bylaw Amendment

Public Notice is hereby given that the Council of the Rural Municipality of Meeting Lake No. 466 intends to consider the adoption of a bylaw to amend the Zoning Bylaw No. 07/14 under the Planning and Development Act, 2007.

INTENT OF ZONING BYLAW AMENDMENT:

The proposed amendment will provide an alternative with regards to changes to development not requiring a permit, height of hedge, fence or other structures and changes to the minimum floor area.

AFFECT LANDS:

The affected lands of these amendments are all lands or selected lands lying within the jurisdiction of the RM of Meeting Lake No. 466.

REASON:

The reason for the Zoning Bylaw amendment is to update the zoning bylaw for clarity and changes to better the zoning bylaw.

PUBLIC INSPECTION:

Any person may inspect the proposed bylaw to amend the Zoning Bylaw during regular office hours at the RM of Meeting Lake No. 466 municipal office. Copies are available at cost. The RM office is located on 1 Main Street, Mayfair, Saskatchewan.

PUBLIC HEARING:

The Public Hearing shall be held on April 10, 2025 from 10:15 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. at the RM of Meeting Lake No. 466 municipal office to hear any person that wants to comment on the proposed Zoning Bylaw amendments. Council will also consider written comments received by the undersigned by April 10, 2025 at 9:00 a.m.

Issued at the RM of Meeting Lake No. 466 this 27th day of February, 2025.

Janelle Lavallee, Administrator
